Building Strength in Republican Women since 1950

 IN MEMORIAM

Our thoughts and prayers are with Charlie Kirk's family after his brutal political assassination on September 10, 2025 at Utah Valley University. May he rest in peace, and may justice be served.

Be a Member - Be a patriot - Be BFRW

United by Patriotism, Guided by Grace, Driven by Purpose

Our mission is a noble one—to preserve our Constitutional Republic. We applaud the philanthropists, we are touched by those who care for our veterans, and we value those who work hard to strengthen our communities. Above all, we should be proud of ourselves, we protect the greatest system of governance ever established, a system that makes everything possible.

Yet, because of the meanness, bitterness and dirty games often present in politics, our contributions to society are frequently ignored; community activists are often looked down upon; and since grassroot volunteering demands hard work, persistence and lacks glamour, many people choose to stay away. But not us, not the women of BFRW!

We are not just a group of loud women—we are a community of patriots. We are wise enough to know that politics touches every part of our lives. We are brave enough to take the hardest route. We are selfless enough to volunteer our time, our voices and our energy to fight for freedom—for all people—not just a chosen few.

Rooted in love of God and Country, rising on the strength of women, together, we are BFRW.

Xiaoqi Wang

President, BFRW

321-989-2529

BFRW is proud to have so many amazing members.
To show our appreciation, our Newsletter will feature several members each month.

Karen Hiltz

Dr. Karen Hiltz served in the US Navy, retired from Federal Procurement, and taught in undergraduate and graduate business programs. As a former elected School Board member, she focused on policy, strategic planning, and contracts and agreements. She also served as a Planning and Zoning Commissioner, Community College Advisory Board member, and is a former FL House Candidate.

She's been a private school board member and serves and advises various non-profit organizations. She's authored numerous articles and two books: The Case for Choice: Once Size Fits All - An Outdated Education Model for the 21st Century and The Apple Report: Diary of a Public School Board Member. She holds a BS and MBA in Management, an Ed.D. in Leadership Studies, and currently resides in Florida.

Lisa Cullen

Brevard County Tax Collector

Ms. Cullen began her career of public service in 1985 at the Tax Collector's Office. She worked the front counter in a branch office. In the years that followed Lisa worked in numerous areas within the office and worked her way through the ranks. In 2008, she was honored to be elected Tax Collector, a position she assumed in January 2009.

Lisa was born in Logan, West Virginia. Her family moved to Brevard County in the early 80's. She is a graduate of Merritt Island High School, Eastern Florida State College formerly known as Brevard Community College and the University of Central Florida. Lisa also is a Certified Florida Collector (CFC) and was a Certified Florida Collector Assistant (1994-2008).

Lisa and her husband, Robert who is a retired from the Brevard County Sheriff's Office, live in Canaveral Groves.

Linn Murray

Originally from Los Angeles, Linn is retired now after having worked in government contracts management for the Housing Authority of the City of Reno.

Along with her Regent membership in NFRW and Stiletto membership in BFRW, and membership in Republican Women of Brevard, Linn's community involvement includes Satellite Beach Woman's Club Civic Engagement and Outreach Chair; Program Committee, Satellite Beach Lions Club; and promoting patriotism as a member of DAR, Rufus Fairbanks Chapter.
